*All underlined forms are required in an action to modify child support where the parties agree on all of the issues. Additional required documents to be filed with the Clerk to complete the modification action are contained in the Petitioner's Packet. It is recommended that you work with the Petitioner to ensure all necessary forms are filled out correctly and completely. You will also need to sign the Order Modifying Custody and Support that is contained in the Petitioner's Packet before your case can be completed, provided you agree on all of the issues.

Other forms may be required by your Court.

CUSTODY AND CHILD SUPPORT MODIFICATION INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

CONFIDENTIALITY: If you have concerns about confidential information, such as addresses and/or social security numbers, please consult an attorney and do not attempt to do this on your own. You should also know that Domestic Violence Protection Orders or Stalking Orders are available free of charge at the circuit court clerks' offices. You may request assistance in obtaining Domestic Violence Protection or Stalking Orders from your local domestic violence or sexual assault program or you may call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault (844) 264-8080 (toll free) or (307) 755-0992. There are also private attorneys that are willing to assist clients in these matters. If you have ever obtained a Protection Order against the other party, this information should be indicated in the Petition to Modify Custody and Support or the Counterclaim.

Read through the following information and instructions before completing the forms to ensure that you qualify to file for a modification of custody and child support in Wyoming. You must fill out all forms as completely as possible. If your forms are not complete, the Judge may reject your packet.

This packet is to modify custody and child support. If you wish to modify child support only, a separate packet is available.

Information:

1. Qualifying for a modification of custody: In order to modify/adjust a current custody arrangement, the Petitioner must show the Court that there has been a material change in circumstances.
 - a. Material change in circumstances: A court may modify an order concerning the care, custody and visitation of the children if there is a showing by either parent of a material change in circumstances since the entry of the order in question and that the modification would be in the best interests of the children pursuant to Wyoming law. (Wyo. Stat. §20-2-201(a)). A condition which existed when the custody order was entered is not a material change of circumstances.
 - b. Burden of proof: It is up to the person trying to modify or change the custody arrangement of the earlier order/decreed to establish that a material change in circumstances has occurred, following the entry of the previous order.
 - c. Judges have broad decision-making authority: Custody, visitation, child support, and alimony are all committed to the sound discretion of the district court. The welfare and needs of the children are to be given paramount consideration. The determination of the best interests of the child is a question for the Judge. A Judge's decision is very hard to overturn.

2. Modifying child support: Often when a person seeks to modify child custody, child support will also be affected. If that is the situation in your case, this packet includes information to modify child support too.

If a party wishes to modify the current custody and child support order and they believe a material change in circumstances exists, then that party will file a Petition to Modify Custody and Support (“Petition”). The person filing the Petition is the “Petitioner” regardless of whether he/she was the Plaintiff or the Defendant when the child support order was first entered. The other party is referred to as the “Respondent.”

Once a Petition has been filed, a copy must be formally given to (a/k/a served on) the Respondent, who is then expected to respond to the Petition. Personal service of the Petition and Summons on the Respondent by a Sheriff is required for the Petition UNLESS the Respondent completes an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form. Formal service is required for the Petition, so the Court has proof that the Respondent actually received the papers. Other forms of service exist, but these are the easiest methods that meet the formal service requirement for a Petition.

Instructions:

STEP 1. Response or Response and Counterclaim. Two options exist – you may either file a Response to the Petition or file a Response and Counterclaim. Both options are explained below:

OPTION A. Response to Petition. If you have been served or have signed an Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service form, you should file a Response to Petition to Modify Custody and Support with the Clerk of District Court where the Petition was filed. A Response to Petition to Modify Custody and Support is a written document explaining to the court exactly which provisions you agree with and which provisions you deny. If you fail to answer, a default judgment may be entered against you and the Petitioner may be entitled to the relief he or she asked for in the Petition.

You must fill in the caption. DO NOT forget to include the case number. This is located in the caption of the Summons and/or Petition.

- i. Admit or Deny. To respond to the Petition, you should go through each and every paragraph of the Petition and either “admit” or “deny” each paragraph. If you do not have sufficient information to either admit or deny a particular allegation, you must state that in your Response to Petition to Modify Custody and Support. If you disagree with something and you fail to “deny” it in your Response, the Judge can find that you admitted it.
- ii. Time limit to respond. You have only a limited amount of time to file a response to the Petition. Generally, if you were served within the State of Wyoming, you will have 20 days to file the Response to Petition to Modify Custody and Support. If you were served outside the State of Wyoming, you generally will have 30 days to file a response. If you do not file a response by your deadline, then your spouse may obtain an Order Modifying Custody and Support giving him/her everything he/she requested in the Petition.

iii. Computation of Time Limits. In computing most time limits, unless otherwise stated, the day the pleading is served shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, or, when the act to be done is the filing of a paper, a day on which weather or other conditions have made the office of the clerk of the court inaccessible, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not one of the aforementioned days. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 11 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A "legal holiday" includes any day officially recognized as a legal holiday in this state by designation of the legislature or appointment as a holiday by the governor.

NOTE: If you have any question or concerns as to when the deadline to file a response is, you should consult an attorney.

iv. REQUIRED INFORMATION FOR CHILD(REN): Certain information is required to be given under oath for each child, unless you have a court order or are operating under another law allowing you to maintain confidentiality of addresses or other identifying information. If the information is not provided, the court, upon motion of a party or its own motion, may stop the case from going forward until the information is provided. The information necessary is included in the Response and the Response and Counterclaim.

v. Certificate of Service: Copies of all documents sent to or filed with the court must be sent to the Petitioner before the Judge will consider them. This is certificate is included at the end of each document that requires it.

vi. Copies. Make two (2) copies of the document. The original will be filed by the Clerk of District Court, one copy is for the Petitioner and the other copy is for you (the Respondent). You will need to repeat this step for all documents you file with the Clerk's office.

OR

OPTION B. Response and Counterclaim. If you want the Judge to grant relief to you, you should file a Response and Counterclaim. This document responds to the Petition and gives you an opportunity to tell the court what you want to happen with the case. First, you will go through each and every paragraph of the Petition and either "admit" or "deny" each paragraph. Second, the Counterclaim portion of the document asks the Judge to give you what you want. You must fill out all of the information in the document completely.

- i. Follow Step 1(ii) through Step 1(vi) above. You will also need to obtain a certified copy of the prior custody order and attach it to your Response and Counterclaim. Certified copies can be obtained from the Clerk of Court who entered the order. You will need to pay a copying charge for any copies obtained.

NOTE: If you have any question or concerns as to when the deadline to file the Response and Counterclaim is, you should consult an attorney.

ii. Petitioner's Reply to Your Counterclaim. The Petitioner must reply to the Counterclaim. If you file a Counterclaim, the Petitioner will have 20 days to "reply" by filing a Reply to Counterclaim. The Petitioner will either admit or deny the separate allegations in your Counterclaim. If the Petitioner fails to reply to the Counterclaim, you may be entitled to file Default paperwork seeking the relief you request in your Counterclaim.

STEP 2. Initial Disclosures. The law requires certain information be made available to the other party within thirty (30) days after the Respondent's Response is required to be served on the Petitioner (use the table in 2.A. below to determine date). The information consists of a schedule of financial assets; schedule of non-financial assets; schedule of all debts owed individually or jointly; location(s) of safety deposit box(es); employment information; information regarding other income and retirement accounts; and a summary of the facts believed to support the claim of superior entitlement to custody where child custody is at issue. Both parties are required to provide this information in order to fully disclose finances of the parties relating to the calculation of child support.

Please note that "A party must make its disclosures based on the information then reasonably available to it and is not excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures."

A. WHEN TO PROVIDE: You must provide your Initial Disclosures to the Petitioner (or his/her attorney) WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER YOUR RESPONSE IS REQUIRED TO BE SERVED ON THE PETITIONER (use table below). Be sure to keep a copy of your Initial Disclosures form for your records. Use the following to determine the date when you and the Petitioner are required to provide initial disclosures to one another.

1. Begin with the date you were served with the Petition: _____
2. Next, determine when you are required to file your Response:
 - a. If you were served in Wyoming, add 20 days to the date in #1:

OR
 - b. If you signed an Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service, add 20 days to the date in #1: _____

OR
 - c. If you were served out-of-state, add 30 days to the date in #1:

3. Add 30 days to the date in #2(a), (b), or (c): _____

The date set forth in #3 is the date by which you and the Petitioner must provide your completed Initial Disclosures forms to one another.

B. DO NOT FILE THE INITIAL DISCLOSURES WITH THE COURT. This form is only given to the Petitioner (or his/her attorney).

STEP 3. Fill out a Confidential Financial Affidavit and attach all required documents.

A. Fill out a Confidential Financial Affidavit and attach all required documents.

- Both parties are required to file a Confidential Financial Affidavit with the court with all the necessary supporting documentation.
- Required Attachments. The Confidential Financial Affidavit must be supported with documentation of both current and past earnings. Proper documentation of current earnings includes, but is not limited to pay stubs, employer statements, or receipts and expenses if self-employed. Documentation of current earnings shall be supplemented with copies of the most recent tax return to provide verification of earnings over a longer period. Include copies of income tax returns for the previous two years and your most recent pay stub(s) to show how much you have made so far this year.
- The Confidential Financial Affidavit may be filed with the Clerk's office at the same time you file your Response or Response and Counterclaim.

STEP 4. Once you have filed your Response or Response and Counterclaim to the Petition, exchanged your Initial Disclosures, and have filed your Confidential Financial Affidavit, then a couple of options exist regarding how your case can proceed. Pick the option that best describes your situation:

Option A. If you filed a Response or Response and Counterclaim and you and the Petitioner agree on all of the issues of your case, follow Option A below.

Option B. If you filed a Response or Response and Counterclaim and you and the Petitioner do NOT agree on all of the issues of your case, follow Option B.

OPTION A. If you and the Petitioner agree on all of the terms in the Order Modifying Custody and Support, sign the Order in front of a Notarial Officer. Here is some important information about the Order:

The Order will need to be filled out completely, signed by you and the Petitioner and both of your signatures need to be notarized. In addition to signing the Order, you should also initial each page of the Order to verify that each page contains the terms you agreed upon.

Important Child Support Laws:

- a. Recipients of certain public benefits. Recipients of certain public benefits, such as POWER, are required to assign their rights to support to, and cooperate with, the department of family services in the establishment of parentage and the establishment, enforcement and modification of support obligations. If you or your children receive public benefits, contact your Department of Family Services Caseworker or local child support enforcement office as a modification of child support may have an impact on your benefits. Wyo. Stat. §20-6-105.
- b. Military Personnel: Military regulations specify that military duty will not be used as a basis for avoiding family support obligations, but setting the level of support is a civilian matter. It is most common to set the support obligation based on basic military pay. You can go to www.dfas.mil for updates on military pay and many other issues. If military pay and benefits are an issue in your child support case, you may want to contact an attorney for assistance. The following is also a helpful website:

<https://www.acf.hhs.gov/css/resource/a-handbook-for-military-families>
- c. Overtime compensation: Overtime compensation is not counted in the “net income” unless the court, after considering all overtime earnings derived in the preceding twenty-four (24) month period, determines the overtime earnings can reasonably be expected to continue on a consistent basis.
- d. Entry of income withholding order. An income withholding order (IWO) enables an employer to take child support out of the pay of the parent obligated to pay. The court always enters an IWO which takes effect immediately, unless the parties agree otherwise, or unless one (1) of the parties demonstrates, and the court finds, that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding. When the parties agree to an alternative arrangement, the arrangement must be in writing, signed by the parties and reviewed and entered in the record by the court. The court shall include in the record its findings of good cause, including a statement explaining why implementation of immediate income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child and, in cases involving modification of child support, proof of timely payments.

An income withholding order which did not become effective immediately upon entry, becomes effective upon the earliest of the following: (i) the date the parent paying requests withholding commence; or (ii) child support becomes delinquent in payment of an amount equal to one (1) month's support obligation under the support order.

- e. Limits on amounts withheld: The total amount that can be withheld from any employee's paycheck is limited by the Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA). The limits provided in the CCPA are fifty percent (50%) of disposable earnings if the parent who pays child support has a second family and sixty percent (60%) if there is no second family. These limits are each increased by five percent (5%) if payments are in arrears for a period equal to twelve (12) weeks or more. See definition of disposable income in paragraph 4 below.
- f. Social security or veteran's benefits. If your children receive part of a parent's social security or veteran benefits, you might want to contact an attorney or legal services program for assistance with child support calculation. If a proportion of a support obligor's (person who is supposed to pay child support) social security or veteran's benefit is paid directly to the custodian (parent or guardian with custody of the children) of the obligor's children who are the subject of the child support order, the total amount of the social security or veteran's benefit, including the amounts paid to the obligor and custodian under the child support order, will be counted as gross income to the obligor (count the amount the children receive as income to the parent who has to pay support). You will need to calculate the child support due and subtract the amount of the social security or veteran's benefit sent directly to the custodial parent from the noncustodial (obligor's) parent's share of presumptive support. If the subtraction of the social security or veteran's benefit sent directly to the custodian results in a negative dollar amount, the support amount shall be set at zero. The child support obligation shall be offset by the amount of the social security or veteran's benefit sent directly to the custodian, beginning from the time the custodian began receiving the social security or veteran's benefit. Wyo. Stat. §20-2-304(e).
- g. Date new amount of child support begins. An order for child support is not subject to retroactive modification except: (i) Upon agreement of the parties; or (ii) The order may be modified with respect to any period during which a petition for modification is pending, but only from the date notice of that petition was served on the Respondent. Wyo. Stat. §20-2-311(d).
- h. When the child support obligation ends. An on-going child support obligation terminates when the:
 - (i) Parents marry or remarry each other (After the remarriage of the parents to each other, the court may eliminate all child support arrearage existing between the parents except those assigned to the state of Wyoming);
 - (ii) Child dies;
 - (iii) Child is legally emancipated; or

(iv) Child attains the age of majority. (See “age of majority” definition below.

IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS:

- a. "Obligor" means a person who owes a duty of support for a child;
- b. "Payor" means any employer or other person who pays income to an obligor and who has or provides health care coverage to employees;
- c. "Arrearage" means past due child support, past due medical support, past due spousal support, attorneys fees, guardian ad litem fees, costs, interest and penalties, but, does not include property settlements.
- d. "Income" means any form of payment or return in money or in kind to an individual, regardless of source. Income includes, but is not limited to wages, earnings, salary, commission, compensation as an independent contractor, temporary total disability, permanent partial disability, permanent total disability, worker's compensation payments, unemployment compensation, disability, annuity and retirement benefits and any other payments made by any payor.
- e. The following is not “income”: Means tested sources of income such as Pell Grants, aid under the Personal Opportunities With Employment Responsibilities (POWER) Program, food stamps and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) shall not be considered as income.
- f. “Net” or “Disposable” income is the gross income minus total mandatory deductions. Mandatory deductions: federal income tax withheld, social security tax (FICA) withheld, state income tax withheld, and other deductions required by law, such as required disability contributions and/or required retirement contributions. The cost of dependant health care coverage for dependent children may be deducted too.
- g. “Imputed income” can be used when either parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed. In such case the child support shall be computed based upon the potential earning capacity (imputed income) of the unemployed or underemployed parent. In making that determination the court shall consider:
 - 1) Prior employment experience and history;
 - 2) Educational level and whether additional education would make the parent more self-sufficient or significantly increase the parent's income;
 - 3) The presence of children of the marriage in the parent's home and its impact on the earnings of that parent;
 - 4) Availability of employment for which the parent is qualified;
 - 5) Prevailing wage rates in the local area;
 - 6) Special skills or training; and

- 7) Whether the parent is realistically able to earn imputed income.
- h. "Age of majority" means a person eighteen (18) years of age, except for purposes of child support obligations, a parent's legal obligation for the support of his or her children, whether natural or adopted, continues past the age of majority in cases where the children are: (i) mentally or physically disabled and thereby incapable of self support; or (ii) between the age of majority and twenty (20) years and attending high school or an equivalent program as full-time participants.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR CALCULATING CHILD SUPPORT:

- Child Support Payments. You will need to determine the amount of child support due based upon the Confidential Financial Affidavits you and the Petitioner completed (or by the Affidavit of Imputed Income if the Petitioner did not complete his/her own Confidential Financial Affidavit). You may use the Child Support Computation Form as a guide to help you calculate the support due. Another option is to go online to:

<https://childdsupport.wyoming.gov/calculator/index.html>

to calculate child support.

- You CANNOT agree that no support will be paid. The statutes allow for a reduced amount of support when you agree on joint physical custody and each parent keeps the child(ren) overnight for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the year and both parents contribute substantially to the expenses of the children in addition to the payment of child support.
- If the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve is less than the support obligation as calculated from the tables in 20-2-304(a), the support obligation shall be set using the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve. "Self-support reserve" means the current poverty line for one (1) person as specified by the poverty guidelines updated periodically in the Federal Register by the United States department of health and human services under the authority of 42 U.S.C. 9902(2). See W.S. § 20-2-304(f)
- There are NO DEVIATIONS from the presumed support allowed UNLESS the Court CHOOSES to deviate from the set amount because the amount was unjust or inappropriate in the particular case. The Court must include the specific reasons for deviation in the Order.
- NO AGREEMENTS FOR LESS THAN THE PRESUMED SUPPORT CAN BE APPROVED IF GOVERNMENT OR STATE BENEFITS (SUCH AS TITLE 19, KID CARE, FOOD STAMPS, POWER, ETC.) ARE BEING PROVIDED ON BEHALF OF ANY CHILD. This means the Court cannot lower the amount of child support calculated by using the net income of you and the Petitioner even if you and the Petitioner agree to a lower amount of support.

- Medical Support. The law requires that medical support for the child(ren) be included as part of any child support order. The Court shall order either or both of the parents to provide medical support, if insurance can be obtained at a reasonable cost and the benefits under the insurance policy are accessible to the children. This may include dental, optical or other health care needs for the child(ren). In addition, the Court will order that any medical expenses not covered by insurance and any deductible amount on the required insurance coverage be paid by one or both parents. If both parents are ordered to pay for expenses not covered by insurance, the Court will specify the proportion for which each parent is responsible (for example, 50% to Plaintiff and 50% to Defendant).
- When will your custody and child support order be modified? Your order modifying custody and child support will not be effective until the Judge signs the Order and it is filed with the Clerk. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Order. You must verify with the Clerk that the Order has been file-stamped before you can be sure your child support order has been modified.

OPTION B. If you and the Petitioner DO NOT agree on all the terms to be included in the Order Modifying Custody and Support, you will need to have a trial.

A. Trial. If you and the Petitioner cannot agree on all issues, your case will have to be heard and decided by a Judge at a trial.

- Caution: It is strongly recommended that you hire or find an attorney to represent you at trial, though you may represent yourself. You proceed at your own risk and will be expected to know the laws.

B. Request a trial date. If the Petitioner has NOT done so, you will need to request a hearing by completing a Request for Setting. Write in “trial” where it asks the type of hearing. Indicate how much time you think it will take for you and the other party to present your evidence and write that in (usually one (1) to three (3) hours). You also need to decide whether or not you want a Court reporter to record the proceeding. SEE BELOW FOR DETAILS ON GETTING A COURT REPORTER. It is very difficult to appeal the Judge’s decision if you do not get a Court reporter to take down everything that is said at the trial.

- You must file the Request for Setting and the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements with the Clerk’s office, and the Court will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the other party. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Petitioner to the Clerk.

Once a trial date has been set, do the following:

C. Pretrial Disclosures. Both parties must provide to other party AND PROMPTLY FILE WITH THE COURT the Pretrial Disclosures regarding the evidence that it may present at trial. If you have questions, you should contact an attorney.

- When are the Pretrial Disclosures due? Unless otherwise directed by the Court, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial.
- Take the original and two (2) copies to the Clerk for filing. Keep one copy for your records and send the other copy to the Petitioner (or his/her attorney).

- Settlement before trial. In the event that your case settles before the trial, you must present the Court with the completed and signed Order Modifying Custody and Support in writing before the Court will take the trial off of the schedule. There will be no continuances or canceling of the trial date based on telephone calls. If you need a continuance, you should contact an attorney for assistance in seeking one.

- Court reporter. If you wish to have a Court Reporter you are required to make a request by phone to the appropriate official court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by submitting a written request. Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The Clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials.

- Evidence and witnesses. At the hearing, you will need to present your evidence and witnesses. If the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements is entered (signed by the Judge), you must follow the terms and provide the Court with the information requested in that document, including copies of exhibits you want to introduce at the trial and a list of your proposed witnesses and what their testimony is going to be about within the time frame ordered (usually 3 to 5 days prior to the trial). Under the law, the Judge cannot help you or assist you at trial. You are on your own without an attorney.

- Final Decision (Order). Following the trial, the Judge will make a decision or may take the matter under advisement, meaning he or she will need to think further before making a determination. If the Judge instructs you, you must take that decision and type it into the Order Modifying Custody and Support incorporating the Judge's decision, but usually the Petitioner or the Judge will prepare the Order.

- You are again reminded that, if you choose to continue without an attorney, you are expected to know what to do and how to do it. The Judge will not guide you through the trial/hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law.

D. When will your custody and child support order be modified? Your custody and child support order will not be modified until the Judge signs the Order and it is filed with the Clerk of Court. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Order. You must verify with the Clerk's office that the Order has been file-stamped before you can be sure your child support order has been modified. The time limit to appeal the Order begins to run from the day the Order is filed with the Clerk's office.

RECAP for Respondent's Documents:

1. File a Response or Response and Counterclaim within 20 days from the date you were served (or 30 days if served out of state). If you file a Response and Counterclaim, be sure to attach a certified copy of the prior custody order.
 - Mail a copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records
2. File a Confidential Financial Affidavit and the required attachments
 - Mail a copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records
3. Assist the Petitioner in filling out the Order Modifying Custody and Support if you both agree on all the terms.
 - Sign the Order in front of a Notarial Officer.

Your custody and child support order is modified when the Order has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

4. If you and the Petitioner do NOT agree on all of the terms, and a trial is needed, follow these steps:
 - a. File a Request for Setting and Order Setting Modification Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements ONLY if the Petitioner has NOT done so.
 - b. Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Petitioner with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements to you and the Petitioner).
 - c. File your Pretrial Disclosures 30 days before the trial date.
 - Mail a copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records (do not file with the Court)
 - d. No later than 3 working days before the trial, request a court reporter, if desired (and if the Petitioner has not already done so).
 - e. Attend the Trial
 - f. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court.

Your custody and child support order is modified when the Order has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

CHECKLIST FOR PACKET 8
RESPONDENT – CUSTODY AND CHILD SUPPORT MODIFICATION

These forms are required in all cases where you and the Petitioner agree on all of the issues:

- Response; and
- Confidential Financial Affidavit

You will also need to work with the Petitioner to complete the Order Modifying Custody and Support and sign it in front of a Notarial Officer.

STEP 1. If you were served with a copy of the Summons and Petition to Modify Custody and Support (“Petition”) or if you signed an Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service, file one of the following:

- ☐ Response to Petition to Modify Custody and Support; OR
- ☐ Response and Counterclaim. Be sure to attach a certified copy of the prior custody order if you file a Response and Counterclaim.
- ☐ Take an original and 2 copies of the Response or Response and Counterclaim to the Clerk for filing
 - ☐ Mail a copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records.

STEP 2. File a Confidential Financial Affidavit and include the required attachments.

Note: This may be filed at the same time as the Response or Response and Counterclaim.

- ☐ Confidential Financial Affidavit
 - ☐ If employed, attach tax returns for prior 2 years; and
 - ☐ Attach statement of earnings for the current year; OR
 - ☐ If self-employed, attach verified income and expense statements for prior two years; and
 - ☐ Attach tax returns for prior 2 years.
- ☐ Take an original and 2 copies of the Confidential Financial Affidavit to the Clerk for filing
 - ☐ Mail a copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records.

STEP 3. Complete the Initial Disclosures

- ☐ Send the Initial Disclosures to the Petitioner within 30 days after you were personally served by the Sheriff or signed the Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form. DO NOT FILE the Initial Disclosures with the Court.

STEP 4. There are two options to choose from on this step depending on your situation. Review each option carefully and pick the option that best describes your situation.

Option A: If you filed a Response or Response and Counterclaim and you and the Petitioner both agree on all issues, complete Option A.

Option B: If you filed a Response or Response and Counterclaim and you and the Petitioner do NOT agree on all issues, complete Option B.

OPTION A. If you and the Petitioner agree on all of the terms in the Order Modifying Custody and Support, sign it in front of a Notarial Officer.

- ☐ Sign the Order;
- ☐ A copy will be mailed to you if the Judge signs the Order.

Your custody and child support order is modified when the Order has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

OPTION B. If you and the Petitioner do NOT agree on all of the issues of your case, fill out and file the following forms and attend the trial:

Caution: It is strongly recommended that you hire or find an attorney to represent you at trial, even though you may represent yourself. You proceed at your own risk and will be expected to know the rules and laws.

- ☐ If the Petitioner has NOT requested, a trial date, you must request one.
 - ☐ Request for Setting
 - ☐ Order Setting Modification Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements (Judge will fill out date and time)
 - ☐ Take original and two copies to the Clerk for filing
 - ☐ Take an envelope addressed to you with postage for the Clerk to mail a copy of the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements to you.
 - ☐ Take an envelope addressed to the Petitioner with postage for the Clerk to mail a copy of the Order Setting Modification Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements to the Petitioner.
 - ☐ Mail a copy of the Request for Setting to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records.

Once a trial date has been set, do the following:

- ☐ Pretrial Disclosures and Pretrial Memorandum
 - ☐ File at least 30 days before the trial date
 - ☐ Take original and two copies to the Clerk for filing
 - ☐ Mail copy to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records
- ☐ No later than 3 working days before the trial, request a court reporter, if desired (and if the Petitioner has not already done so). You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by a written request. If providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing.
- ☐ Attend the Trial: Present your evidence and witnesses.

- ☐ Additional Forms: The Court may also require additional forms depending on the county where your case is filed. Ask the Clerk if additional forms are required. If so, provide copies and envelopes for each additional form as follows:

- ☐ Take an original and 2 copies of each additional form to the Clerk for filing
- ☐ Mail a copy of any additional form filed with the Clerk to the Petitioner and keep a copy for your records

Your custody and child support order is modified when the Order has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

INITIAL DISCLOSURES

The following initial disclosures are submitted by the Respondent pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1.2)(A). This information is required in all custody and support proceedings to the extent that the information pertains to a particular claim or defense in the action. This information must be made available to the opposing party's attorney (or the opposing party if he or she does not have an attorney) within thirty (30) days after the Respondent's Response to the Petition to Modify Custody and Support is required to be served. For any of the following disclosures that do not pertain to you, write "not applicable" on the appropriate schedule.

1. A schedule of financial assets owned individually or jointly, such as savings or checking accounts, stocks, bonds, cash or cash equivalents, including the name and address of the depository, the date such account was established, the type of account, the account number, the current value of the account, and whether the account is acknowledged to be a marital asset or asserted to be a non-marital asset and, if asserted to be a non-marital asset, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Financial Assets.)

2. A schedule of non-financial assets, such as personal or real property (i.e. house, land, vehicles, household items, etc.) owned individually or jointly, including the purchase price and the date of purchase or acquiring the property, the present market value, any indebtedness relating to such asset, the state of record ownership, the current location of the asset, whether purchased from marital assets or obtained by gift or inheritance, and whether acknowledged to be a marital asset or asserted to be a non-marital asset and, if asserted to be a non-marital asset, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Non-Financial Assets.)

3. A schedule of all debts owed individually or jointly, identifying the date any obligation was incurred, the spouse in whose name the debt was incurred, the present amount of all debts and monthly payments, the use to which the money was put which caused the debt to arise, identification of any asset which serves as security for such debt, and an acknowledgement of whether each debt is a marital or non-marital debt, and if asserted to be a non-marital debt, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Debts.)

4. A schedule of safe deposit boxes, including the name and address of the institution where the box is located, the box number, the name and address of the individual(s) who has access to the box, an inventory of the contents, and the value of the assets located therein. (See attached Schedule of Safety Deposit Boxes.)

5. A schedule of employment, including the name and address of your employer; gross monthly wage; payroll deduction(s), specifically identifying the type and amount; the amount of other benefits including transportation, employer contributions to health care, and employer contributions to retirement accounts; and outstanding bonuses. (See attached Schedule of Employment.)

6. A schedule of all other sources of income, including the name and address of the source and the amount and date the income was received. (See attached Schedule of Other Income.)

7. A schedule of all retirement accounts or benefits, including the name and address of the institution holding the accounts or benefits, the present value if readily ascertainable, the initial date of any account, the expected payment upon retirement and the specific retirement date, and the value of the account at the date of the marriage if the account existed prior to marriage. (See attached Schedule of Retirement Accounts or Benefits.)

8. If seeking custody, or a change in custody, set forth the facts believed to support your claim of superior entitlement to custody. In addition, as to a change of custody, set forth the facts comprising a substantial change in circumstances and disclose any supporting documentation. (See attached Schedule of Custody.)

9. NOTE: *Supplementation of disclosures and responses. Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1): A party who has made a disclosure or responded to a request for discovery with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response to include information thereafter acquired, if ordered by the court or in the following circumstances:

A party is under a duty to supplement at appropriate intervals, its disclosures if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

A NOTE ABOUT MARITAL vs. NON-MARITAL ASSETS AND DEBTS

In the following tables you will be asked to distinguish marital property/debt from non-marital (separate) property/debt. Marital property/debt will be divided between you and your spouse as part of the divorce; non-marital property/debt usually will not be divided (depending on the situation).

The general rule is that marital property and debt is any property or debt acquired during the marriage for the benefit of the marriage, regardless of who paid for it or whose name is on it. However, just because a party acquired property before marriage does not necessarily mean that it won't be considered marital property. A spouse's premarital separate property can become marital when a married couple demonstrates an intent, through their words or actions during marriage, to treat one spouse's separate property as marital property. Gifts and inheritances are generally separate property, although gifts for the benefit of the marriage, such as a dishwasher, may be considered marital property.

"During the marriage" generally means from the time of marriage until the time of separation.

People often dispute what property/debt is marital or how long the marriage lasted. When this happens, you are urged to consult with an attorney to learn about the various legal arguments that may be available to you.

If you want to read more about divorce and property division, you can review that information here, <http://www.legalhelpwy.org/>.

PERJURY STATUTE

20. Wyoming Statute § 6-5-301 (Perjury) provides:

(a) A person commits perjury if, while under a lawfully administered oath or affirmation, he knowingly testifies falsely or makes a false affidavit, certificate, declaration, deposition or statement, in a judicial, legislative or administrative proceeding in which an oath or affirmation may be required by law, touching a matter material to a point in question.

(b) Perjury is a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than five (5) years, a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or both.

OATH

I have read and understand the provisions of the above perjury statute. I affirm that this Confidential Financial Affidavit (including attachments) contains a complete disclosure of my income from all sources and that the representations made herein concerning my income are accurate to the best of my knowledge. I am aware that the court may punish as perjury any materially false statements knowingly made with intent to defraud or mislead.

REQUEST FOR SETTING

The ☐ Petitioner OR ☐ Respondent requests a time and date for a hearing/trial in the District Court. The hearing/trial will take approximately _____ ☐ hours/ _____ ☐ minutes and will address the following issues:

1) ☐ The parties have reached an agreement (both parties have signed the Order Modifying Custody and Support and this Court requires a hearing before it will enter the Order) (NOTE: submit the Order Setting Hearing if this option is selected); OR

2) ☐ Default was entered against ☐ Petitioner OR ☐ Respondent and this Court requires a hearing before it will enter an Order Modifying Custody and Support. (NOTE: submit the Order Setting Hearing if this option is selected); OR

3) ☐ The parties are not able to agree on all of the terms of the modification and a hearing is needed on the following issues:

- ☐ Allocation of parental responsibilities
- ☐ Child support
- ☐ Motion for _____
- ☐ Other: _____

(NOTE: submit the Order Setting Hearing if this option is selected); OR

4) ☐ The parties are not able to agree on any issues and a trial is needed for a Child Custody and Support Modification (NOTE: submit the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements).

5) Any party requesting the reporting of a particular matter by the official court reporter shall make a request to the appropriate official court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by submitting a written request. Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The Clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials. If a hearing is not recorded by an official court reporter, a transcript of the hearing will not be available. It is very difficult to appeal the Judge's decision if you do not have a transcript of everything that is said at the trial. Rule 904 of the Uniform Rules of the District Courts of the State of Wyoming.

ORDER SETTING MODIFICATION TRIAL AND REQUIRING PRETRIAL STATEMENTS

THIS MATTER having come before the Court upon a Request for Setting, and the Court being generally advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that a trial of the above matter is hereby scheduled for Courtroom No. ____ of the _____ County Courthouse, _____, Wyoming on the ____ day of _____, 20__ commencing at __:____ o'clock __.m.
(____) minutes/hour(s)/day(s) has been set aside for the trial of this matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall file and serve on the opposing party or their attorney, if represented, no later than five (5) days prior to the trial, the party's sworn statement setting forth the facts, to the best of the party's knowledge and belief, called for by Section "A" of the attached list of information, and a statement by counsel (attorney), if any, of the client's position and proof as called for by Section "B." These filings are required to narrow and simplify the issues, prevent surprise and to eliminate unnecessary proof. The material may be presented in narrative form but must be complete for purposes called for by this order. To avoid duplication, the parties or their attorneys, if any, may submit a joint statement of those items not in dispute.

Any party requesting the reporting of a particular matter by the official court reporter shall make a request to the appropriate official court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by submitting a written request. Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The Clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials. Rule 904 Uniform Rules of the District Courts of the State of Wyoming.

In the event that this case settles, the parties are informed that there will be no change in the scheduling of this matter by the Court until such time as the settlement is reduced to writing and a written agreement is presented to the court. There will be no continuances or canceling of the trial date based on telephone calls.

SECTION "A"
SWORN STATEMENT OF PARTY

Items to be included:

1. Personal data and history relevant to the issues, including name, age, prior marriages, if any, children's initials, present living situation of the parties and their immediate family. For instance, where each party and the children are residing, with whom the children are residing, and how the children are being cared for during the day. This item calls for a brief but comprehensive statement of the party's personal history as it may relate to the divorce litigation.
2. Present employment, including identity and location of employer, nature of the job, length of employment, gross and net income and benefits, including health and accident coverage, if any, its convertibility to non-group plan in event of loss of employment, terms of retirement program, all deductions from salary or wages, and prospects for the continuation of the employment.
3. Employment history and employability, including previous employment and incomes, education, training and work experience affecting employability. Include any other factors substantially affecting employability.
4. Other income, whatever the source.
5. Any other information which counsel, or the party, believe to be material to the determination of the issues.

SECTION "B"
STATEMENT OF COUNSEL

Statement of the case by counsel of the client's position with respect to:

1. Amount of child support:
 - a. Amount called for by the child support guidelines;
 - b. Why, if it is urged, there should be departure from the guidelines.
2. Reasons, either in favor of or against modification of child custody and/or child support.
3. List of witnesses and specific summary of expected testimony.
4. Exhibits.

PRETRIAL DISCLOSURES

NOTE: Unless otherwise directed by the court, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial. Within 14 days thereafter, unless a different time is specified by the court, a party may serve and promptly file with the Clerk of District Court a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Rule 32 (a) of a deposition designated by another party under Rule 26(a)(3)(B), and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under Rule 26(a)(3)(C). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, are waived unless excused by the court for good cause.

☐ Petitioner OR ☐ Respondent submits the following initial disclosures, pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3), required in pretrial proceedings. This information must be made available to the opposing party or the opposing party's counsel and the Court at least thirty (30) days before the trial.

A. The name and, if not previously provided, the address and telephone number of each witness, separately identifying those whom the party expects to present and those whom the party may call if the need arises.

B. The designation of those witnesses whose testimony is expected to be presented by means of a deposition and, if not taken stenographically (i.e. by a court reporter), a transcript of the pertinent portions of the deposition testimony.

C. An appropriate identification of each document or other exhibit, including summaries of other evidence, separately identifying those which the party expects to offer and those which the party may offer if the need arises.

NOTE: Supplementation of disclosures and responses. Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1) states that: A party who has made a disclosure or responded to a request for discovery with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response to include information thereafter acquired, if ordered by the court or in the following circumstances:

A party is under a duty to supplement at appropriate intervals, its disclosures if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.
